Miss French on Committee.
Friends of Miss Alice French of Davenport, whose pen name Octave Thane, has become famous, and who has been one of the most prominent women of the country opposed to suffrage, will be interested in knowing that she has been invited to become a member of the national woman's committee of the Republican party favoring Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois for president.

"Yes, I know we have lost out, and I know they say 'the ants are going into politics,'" said Miss French in speaking of the invitation extended her by Mrs. Fletcher Dobbs of Chicago, chairman of the woman's party for Governor Lowden, and her acceptance. "Well, we are. We are not going to desert. We are going to show we are good losers. We are going to help save the country in every way a woman can help," and Miss French smiled, possibly reflecting on a few of the perfectly obvious deeds awaiting the correcting attention of woman's guiding hand.
